Library Users’ Bill of Rights

- All library users have the right to study in a safe, quiet and clean environment.
- Any disruptive activity that interferes with these rights or that is potentially harmful to oneself, other Library users, Library staff, the Library facility itself, or its resources shall result in immediate expulsion from the Library and may result in termination of Library privileges for a specified period of time up to and including the remainder of the semester.

In order to protect these rights, the Library staff enforces the following policies:

- No talking on cell phones in the LLRC. (Text or Search mode permitted).
- No food or drink consumption or display inside the LLRC. (Bottled water permitted).
- No socializing on the 2nd floor. The 2nd floor is a designated Quiet Study area. (Study rooms may be reserved).

If it is too noisy, text us and let us know.
